New Mexico Block Baby Quilt

Note from Alanda Craft: Isn't this baby quilt just gorgeous? Sara has done an awesome job. She made this quilt using the tutorial for the New New Mexico Quilt Block, which just happens to be one of my favourite quilt blocks. The colours are just beautiful and I think it looks stunning. The lass who receives this baby quilt will be delighted. Thank you so much, Sara, for sharing your gorgeous quilt with us. You can see in the pictures below that Sara has now finished her quilt and she added binding by hand.

Sara Says:

Made this in a short few hours for my sis-in-law who will give it as a baby gift!

It came out super cute. Just waiting to quilt it.

Here's my quilt that I quilted, with hand binding.

▪ The reverse side of quilt.

▪ The front side quilted and finished with hand binding.
