

Readers Project: Barbara's 'Be My Valentine' Quilt

Note from Alanda Craft: Here is another gorgeous quilt from Barbara. This is her 'Be My Valentine' quilt using a Riley Blake layer cake. She has kept the pieces of fabric featuring the old trucks in large pieces to showcase them, and I think it has worked really well.

Barbara Says:

I got this Riley Blake layer cake called Falling in Love. I didn't want to cut up the big pieces with the old trucks on it so Chrystal at the Clover Patch and I came up with this. I knew I wanted to frame the blocks so got some bright pink fabric but decided it just wasn't right. Instead, I used the black and white polka dots. I had enough left over to make a mat for a pet bed, too.

Blocks showcasing the trucks. I like the black and white polka dot sashing and binding, it makes the quilt pop!

Barbara has been part of our community for quite some time now and she makes really love quilts for her friends and family. We are always happy to see her newest creations and we are very grateful that she shares her projects with us.. Here is a list of Barbara's quilts that we have previously showcased here on Alanda Craft.
